Every life needs
a guiding light to show the way,
to give strength,
Something that is individual, yet
can draw all in unity with its warmth and understanding, as a moth to a flame.

The PHS Class Of 1972 Presents Shakespeare

Two Sets Of Identical Twins Create Confusion

1 1 4
2 1 3 1 5

1/The goldsmith gave Bern Hinckley's gold chain to his twin brother, Dennis Davis, by mistake. Bern promised the chain to a Courtezan in exchange for her diamond ring. Here, Bev DeVore, mistaking Dennis for his twin, demands of him the gold chain. James Groves, Dennis's attendant, stares in amazement. He thinks Bev is Satan.

2/The sets were simple, the costumes spectacular, and the make-up truly Shakespearean. Nicki Philibosian and Freda Walling skillfully apply their "faces" while Bev DeVore, David Allison, and Rose McAdam give critical approval.

3/"There is something in the wind, that we cannot get in." Kirk Robertson, David Allison, Bern Hinckley, and Mike Nott stand locked out of Bern's house.

4/Nicki Philibosian mistakes Dennis Davis as her husband and scolds him for ignoring her.

5/Mr. Wasden transforms Dennis Davis and Bern Hinckley into the twin brothers, Antipholus of Syracuse and Antipholus of Ephesus.

Senior Class Presents Comedy

"Character Roles Are Challenging

Mr. Pim (Curtis Johnson), an aging, absent-minded "passer-by" enters into the lives of the George Marden family, and because of a mix-up, informs Mr. Marden (Greg Gerard) that his wife Olivia's (Rhonda Neale) previous husband, whom everyone presumed was dead, is actually still alive. Racked by his conscience and the naggings of his aunt (Susan Myrick), George decides that his present marriage must be annulled to terminate the bigamous marriage. Questions of morality are raised, but never answered as the story is solved by other means.

A romantic subplot is added to the play as Brian Strange (James Groves) tries to gain permission to wed George's niece, Dinah (Bev DeVore). George nearly has to be blackmailed to give that permission because of the difference of opinions he shares with Brian on the matters of art, politics, and personal finances.

1/Olivia contemplates the plan to annul her marriage to George.

2/George, Olivia, Dinah, and Brian listen attentively to what Aunt Julia has to say.

3/Cheryl Gerard, Bev DeVore, and James Groves paint scenery, an important backstage job.

4/Dinah and Brian enjoy a romantic scene in the play.

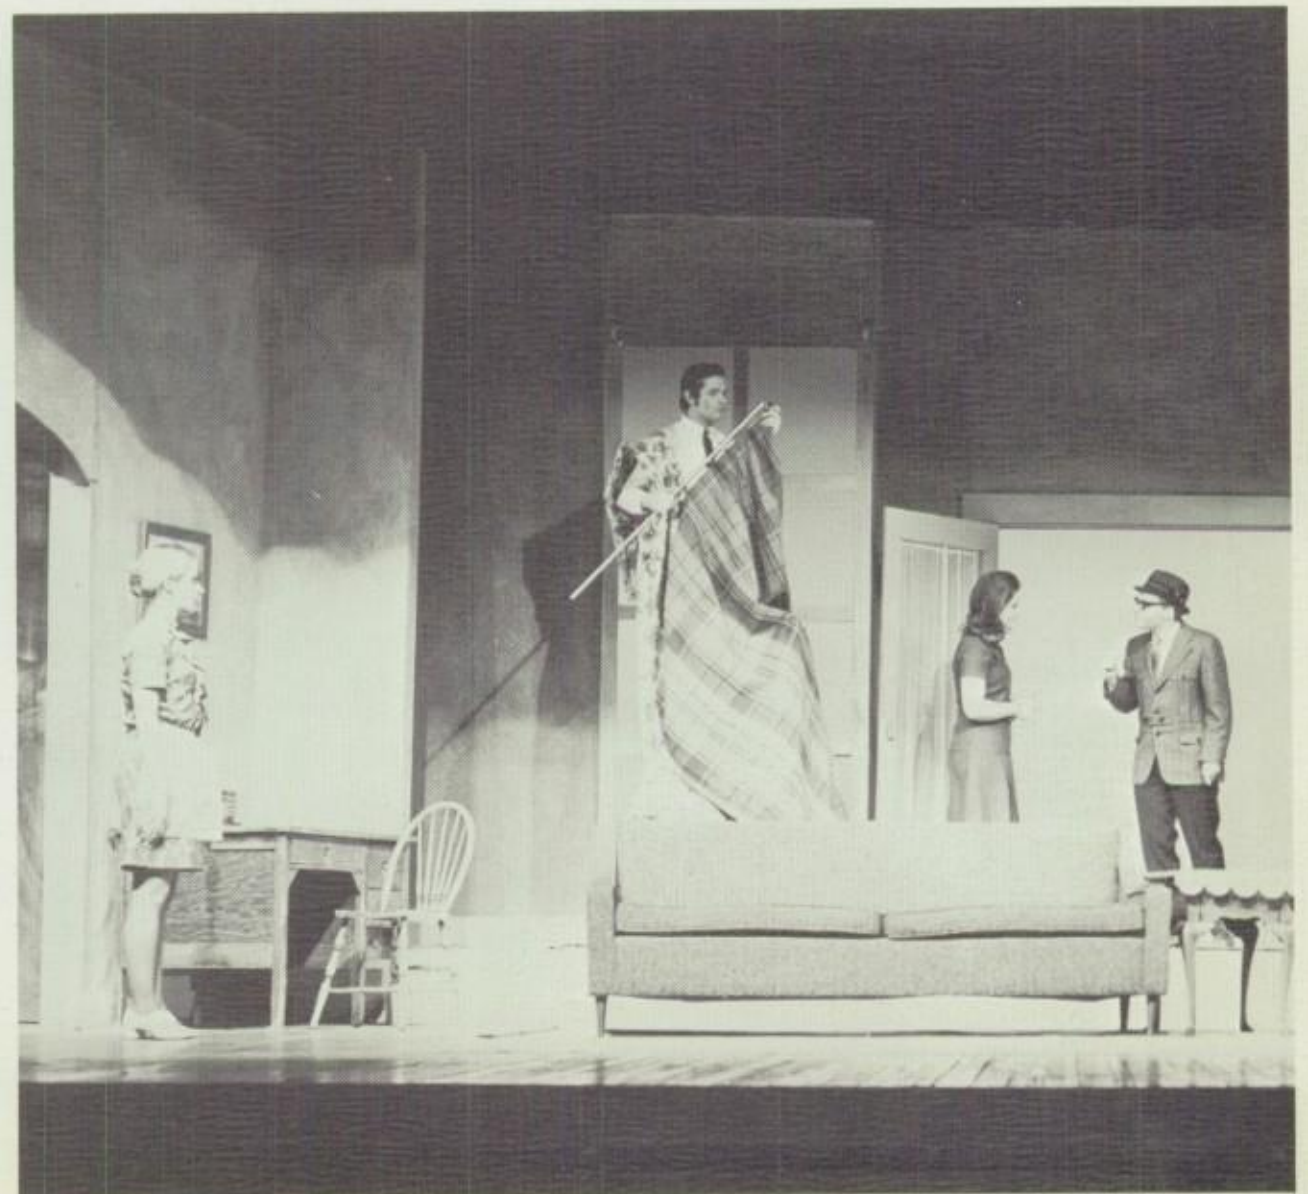

5/Anne (Gaila Ferris), and George observe the discussion between Olivia and Mr. Pim.

Final Performance At Graduation

The Concert Choir, directed by Mr. Joe Pinney, made four public appearances. The first being the annual Christmas Concert, beginning with the impressive, traditional candlelight ceremony.

January 29th marked the date for those students traveling to Worland to attend All-State. Each applicant must submit an audition by tape. Robyn Bishopp, Doris Solomon, Nicole Philibosian, Greg Bennett, Pat Dalton, and Steve Christiansen were given the honor of singing with the 215 voice All-State Choir.

Welcoming spring the choir gave a concert in conjunction with the Orchestra. The choir is fortunate to possess so many talented musicians. Steve Fordham presented an original composition and under his direction, Hallelujah, Praise The Lord was performed at the Spring Concert. Powell High School hosted the annual Music Festival, and the group received a superior rating for the sixth consecutive year.

Bev Bovee and Steve Fordham were awarded outstanding choir members, being chosen by the other chorus members. Officers for the organization were: President- Earl Otto, Vice-President- Gary Mefford, Secretary- Janet Fulton, Robe Chairmans- Greg Bennett and Bev Bovee, Librarians- Julie Hopkin, Linda Brown and Pat Dalton, and Historian- Dawna Hitt.

POP GROUP Represents Fine Quality In Singing

The PHS Pop Group delighted their audiences by singing such hits songs as Feelin' Groovy, Spinning Wheel, Traces, Aquarius, and Let The Sun Shine In.

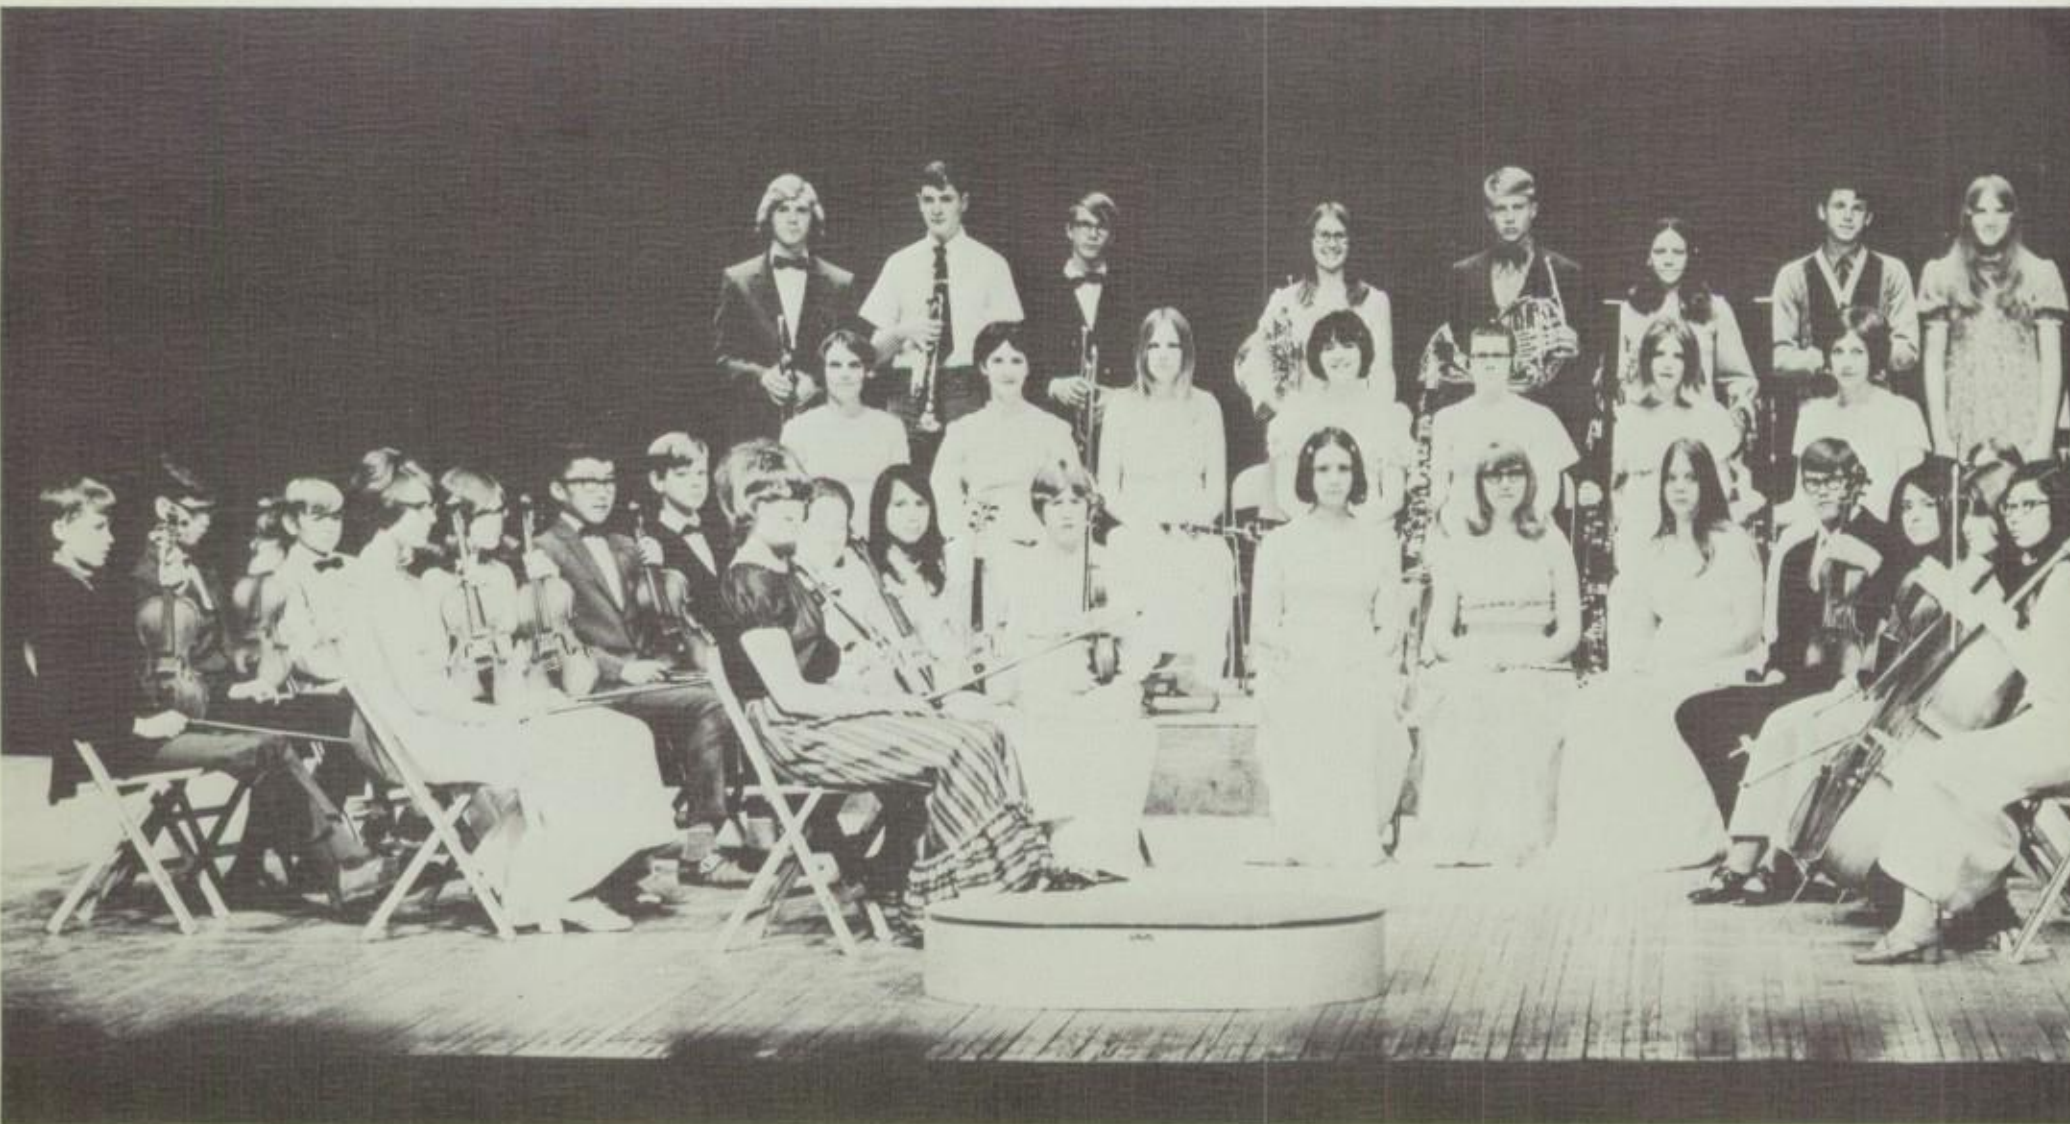

The members of this group are also a part of the Concert Choir and are selected, through auditions, for their talent and musical ability. Under the unique direction and guidance of Mr. Joe Pinney these young people achieved much personal satisfaction and had many many memorable musical experiences.

The singing students performed for such organizations as the Does and the Kiwanians. They entertained at the National Honor Society Initiation, Pep Club Banquet, Round Table Sports Banquet, Farm Bureau State Convention, District Cheerleading Luncheon, gave a half-time show at the District Basketball Tournament, and were invited back for a second time around at the Miss Park County Pageant. Among the highlights of the year was the tour taken by the Pop Group and the Stage Band. This was a real change, as tours have not been taken for a number of years.

1/Powell High students swept the most winnings at the Stars of Tomorrow in Group III. Grand Prize went to Nicole Philibosian (top center) who sang "Un Bel Di." Second place winners were a jazz group called "Blue Jam," organist Steve Fordham, saxophonist Dave Allison, and drummer Mark Barret from Cody (not pictured). Winning third place was pianist Donna Winscott who played "Claire de Lune."

2/Director Rudolph Sucharda proudly turns to the audience to present the Orchestra.

3/Danny Froskop "fiddled" his way to an "A" rating at the Music Festival held in April. Danny received a Ricks College scholarship offer from the string adjudicator.

Debate teams participating throughout the year were Bern Hinckley - Mike Hinman, Dennis Davis - Tom Singer, and Eileen Kopriva - Debbie Braa, with Curtis Johnson as a Lincoln - Douglas debater. Persons attending the State Drama Festival included Cheryl Gerard and Singer in Poetry, Johnson and Bev DeVore in Oratory, Davis and Kopriva in Discussion, Davis and James Groves in Humorous Interp, Mike Nott and Dave Allison in Dramatic Interp, and Hinckley and Hinman in Debate. At the Speech Club Picnic in April, Singer, Davis, Hinckley, Hinman, Allison, Johnson, Kopriva, and Tony Shuler received B.S. degrees. Receiving Master Debater degrees were Singer, Davis, Hinman, and Hinckley as part of the Award Program.

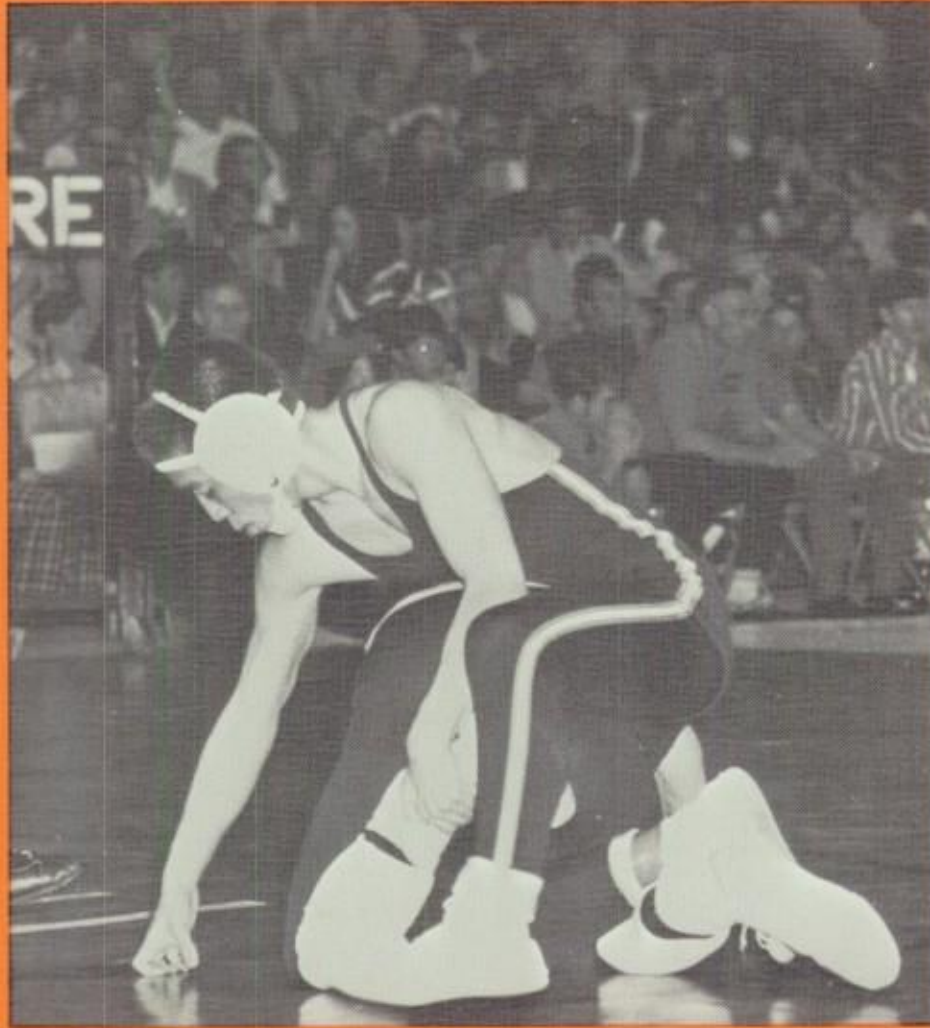

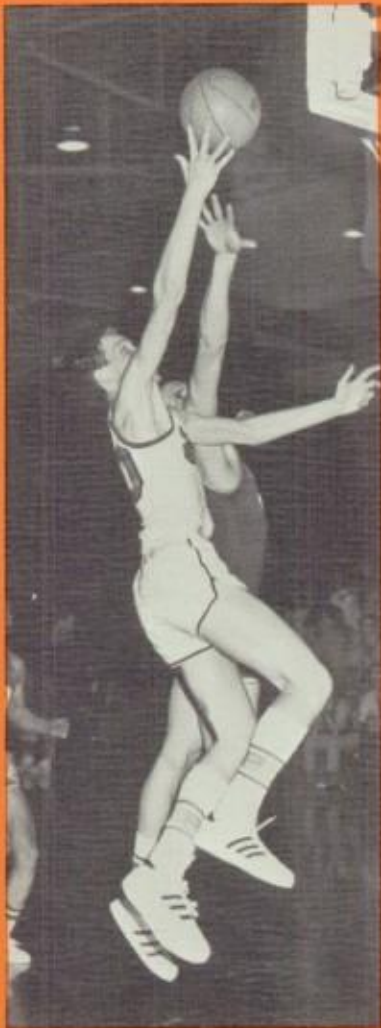

- 1/Tom Singer, Freda Walling, James Groves, and Cheryl Gerard practice "The Glass Menagerie" for Readers Theater.
- 2/The feet are an important part of a debater's life - they are constantly in his mouth. Dave Allison and Mike Nott remove their feet after a long day.
- 3/Koporp does it! Practice wins points in debate.
- 4/James Groves holds his headgear in place while reading "The Khrushchev Landing."
- 5/The "God Squad" is stumped again. Hinckley, Singer, Davis, and Hinman find themselves up a tree.

In anticipation the players wait Nervous, anxious, trying to concentrate on the game
Remembering what was said
during the last practice Using determination and team-work to bring victory
Feeling pride and inspiration upon seeing our support And afterwards - elation and contemplation.

... And Game Festivities

The Powell Athletic Roundtable hosted the annual Roundtable Banquet to which athletes from all sports are guests. Three football players received special honors for their accomplishments. Co-captains Gary Mefford and Craig Whitlock were most inspirational and most valuable player respectively. Senior guard, Randy Waln, earned the Lee Blocking Trophy.

47 Full-Season Participants

The 1971 Cross Country season was, in many ways, the best ever in the five year history of the sport at Powell High School. The team posted its' best record and individuals developed a general appreciation of what it takes to become a real champion in the sport.

The "B" runs were also impressive, indicating a young group of performers with potential for the future. The sport has now reached a point of litigimacy and, as a result of this year's fine record, will continue to compete with status in State competition.

Season Climaxed By Big Tournament Win.

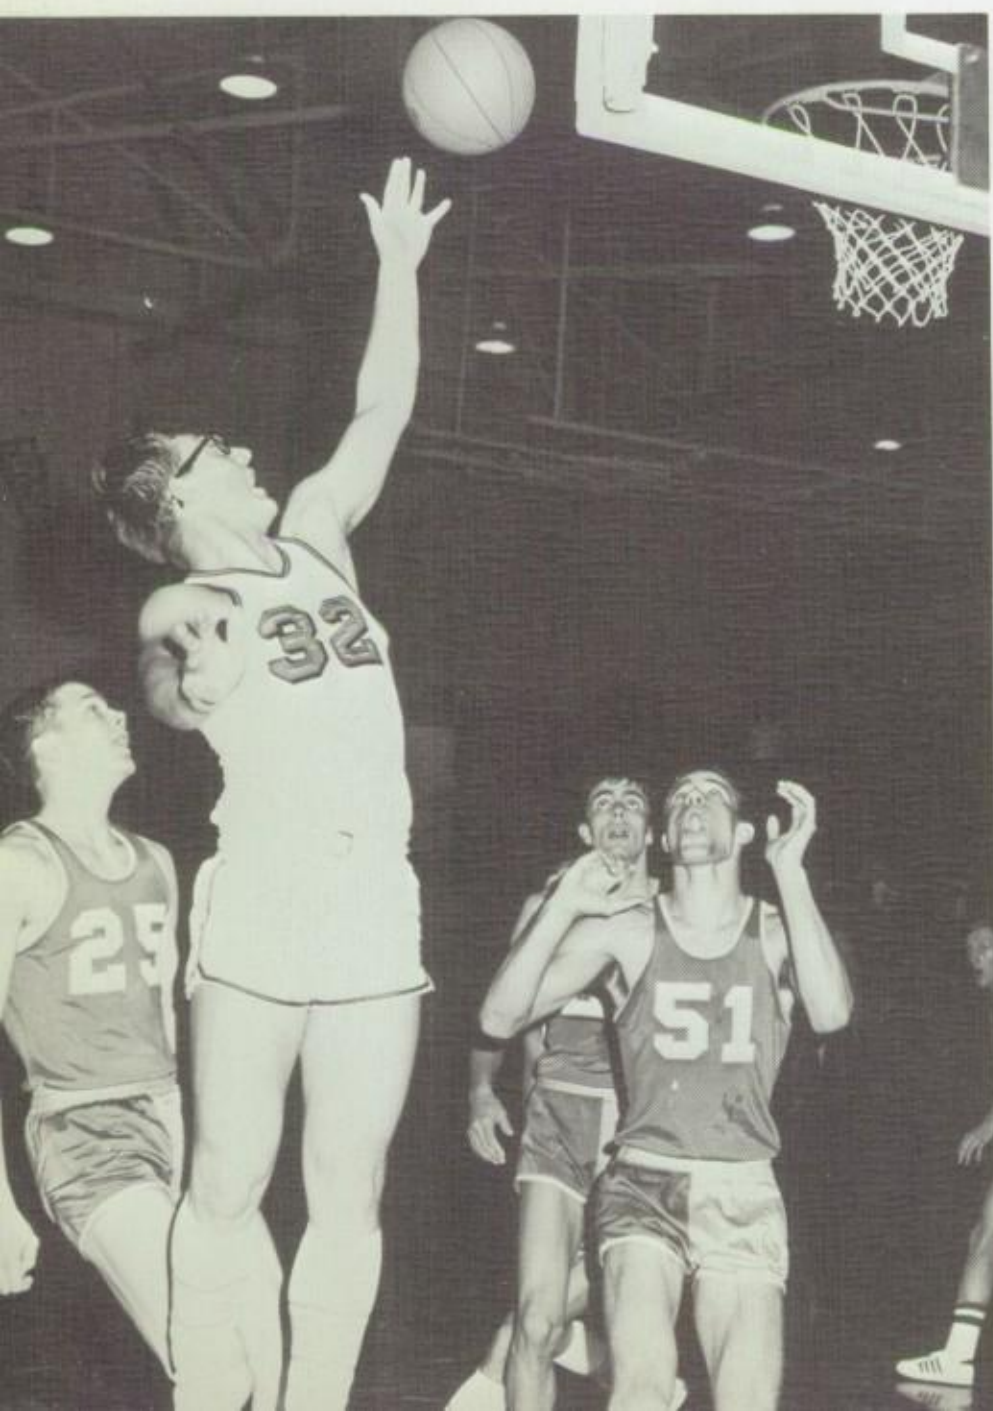

Seniors, Corky Ando, Perry Fisher, and Craig Whitlock led the Panther basketball team to a fourth place finish in the West Regional Tournament. This was a welcome ending to a season that otherwise felt the pains of youth and inexperience. Three Junior starters, Darryl Carmon, Don Lewis and Craig Brown will return next year as will Mike Meeker and Dan Jackson who shared starting berths most of the year. The scoring was led by Darryl Carmon as was rebounding. Mike Meeker had the best freethrow percentage for the total season. Coach Skip McCrary started the season with seventy boys out for wrestling. Nine of these boys were Lettermen and six of these Lettermen were Seniors. As the season progressed the younger wrestlers pushed the senior Lettermen and by the time the West Regional Wrestling tourney was held on February 19-20 only two Senior Lettermen were on the Varsity Squad. This indicates a young and coming team. Nine underclass boys lettered in wrestling and fifty-three boys finished the season with the squad. The Varsity finished with an 8-5 record while the J. V. team had their second undefeated season under the coaching of Bob Edwards.

1970-1971 Swimming Team Sets Seven New Pool Records.

The Powell Senior High Stud Ducks with coach Gene Dozah, swam their way to a 15-1 dual meet record and a fourth place finish in the State Meet. The team broke seven pool records three of which were by Ron Elwood. Ron was also on two record setting relay teams with Tim Lewis, Gary Elwood, Kyle Johnson and Craig Leeper. Craig was voted Outstanding Senior Swimmer by his team mates and Gary Elwood was chosen team captain. (right) Ron Elwood shoots the breeze with Tim Lewis as he tries to get "up for the game". Young Team Has Great Future.

Track practice began at PHS on March 9 with 116 boys reporting. Of this number 16 were seniors, 22 juniors, 53 sophomores and 25 freshmen. This is the largest group out for track in PHS history and probably the largest turnout in the state. We had ten returning lettermen. They are Gary Kluksdahl, Mike Krivanec, John Williams, Darryl Carmon, Dennis Carmon, Gary Greenwald, Dan Jackson, Mike Meeker, Brad Nelson and Bernie Rice. Seniors Break Tradition With The First Snowball Dance

Second attendants, Linda Fisher and John Hillshafer; Queen Jerrilynn Richards and King Perry Fisher; and First Attendants, Janet Fulton and Corky Ando, shuffle in the January snow.

Bridge Over Troubled Water

Prom tradition was broken this year when ten seniors were honored as royalty, in place of the usual six. All those nominated were candidates, from left to right are: Mike Hinman, Janet Cox, John Hillshafer, Judy Derry, Corky Ando (King), Sandy Schleich (Queen), Craig Whitlock, Marti Raymond, Steve Rickert, and Rose McAdam.

The band was extra special, even the teachers enjoyed the music of Prophet from Provo, Utah. Couples danced until midnight.

The Grand March was maneuvered so that each person walked over the bridge. For brief moments lights were bright so all could see into a land of fantasy.

- 4/Laura NeVille and Don Lewis groove to the sounds of Prophet.
- 5/Kiss and Hug. Kiss and Hug. Randy Waln smacks Robin Bishop on the mug.
- 6/Craig Whitlock and Roxanne Anderson lead the grand march over the bridge.

To An Enchanting Evening At The Dance

There are clubs for all reasons
For fun, excitement
And advancement in chosen fields.
Everyone meets new friends
They learn to cooperate
And to work together to reach their goals.
Experience is gained in leadership
And organization of projects.
A smorgasbord of speeches
Banquets, skits and honors.
An extension of selfhood.
It's all practice
For the responsibilities
Of an adult world.

Student Council:

President Dennis Davis drives in the last sucker rod to complete the new parking lot while Secretary Linda Guthrie, Treasurer Hank Heasler, Parliamentarian Dave Allison, and Vice-President Jeff Borron lend a helping hand.

The Student Council concentrated on a many faceted program for the school: exchanging councils with Lovell, choosing the Christmas film, "The Secret War of Harry Frigg," meeting with the School Board, securing Open Campus for the seniors, improving the Student Parking Lot, campaigning for the Easter Seals, and sponsoring an Earth Week campaign.

The Lovell Student Council President and Debbie Sprague listen while Jason Harrington explains the work of the PHS Council.

The Pep Club supported the boys in athletics, put up bulletin boards, directed numerous pep assemblies, and were responsible for many other activities. During Homecoming, the Pep Club conducted the Snake Dance, lit the bonfire, planned the Hootenanny, and crowned the Homecoming Queen at the Dance. The Pep Club held clever assemblies to raise spirit in the Student Body, and they cheered at numerous games and meets to encourage the already enthusiastic athletes. The Pep Club Banquet, April 20, honored the new and old officers, cheerleaders, and drill team. This formally ended activities for the '70-'71 Pep Club.

You've Got A Lot To Live And

President Karen Clifton seems to have captured the interest of all the girls during an FHA meeting.

The Future Homemakers of America ran the concession stand, held a District Officer's Workshop, and had speakers on employment, modern appliances, motel management, and mental illness--with time in between for a foreign carry-in Christmas supper, a slumber party, little sisters, secret friends, adoption of Grandmothers and Grandfathers, State FHA Convention, FHA Week, and an annual banquet.

"Preparedness--The Key to Opportunity," "Our Future As Homemakers," "Make Time Work For You," "To Dare Is To Care," and "Decisions That Count" were the goals the club set; with "Our World A Growing Heritage," and "Stable Home--Stable Life" as the two goals to accent the most through the clubs activities.

FHA Week proved a success from Sunday at church and doll clothes for the day care center, to Saturday's clean-up day; with a tea for the ladies at the Manor, locker posters, bulletin boards, display windows, apples to the teachers, radio advertisements, cupcake and pickle sale, and the honoring of secret friends.

Joni Dudley, Gloria Ibarra, Jeri Harvey and Leslee Buffington wait impatiently for the rush of hungry 8th graders at the FHA annual tea.

The Future Nurses' Club had a successful year filled with fun and hardwork. Initiation was a Mother-Daughter Tea at which the officers presented a skit of "The Do's and Don'ts" of working in the hospital and nursing home.

An exchange dinner entitled "La Fiesta" was held in the Powell High School cafeteria with Lovell Chapter during February.

There were several speakers including; Gene Decker with CARES program, Miss Reynolds on an exercise program, and Dr. Diess gave a demonstration on artificial resuscitation.

Regional Basketball Tournament Concessions and a bake sale served as FNC fund-raising projects.

A trip to the Gottsche Rehabilitation Center in Thermopolis and a Carry-in Dinner finalized the Future Nurses' Club activities.

The Science Club's Goal: Increase Scientific Thought And Interest

Curtis Clabaugh attempts unsuccessfully to retain his crown as the Distance Champion in the 2nd Annual Airplane Contest.

The Science Club has only been in existence for two years but has already made its mark. This years officers, Hank Heasler, President; Dennis Davis, Vice President; Mike Hinman, Secretary; Dave Witzeling, treasurer; helped to sponsor the 2nd Annual Airplane Contest, April 1, 1971. They tried to initiate a Star Party but due to weather conditions, it had to be cancelled. They also sponsored a group of students to lecture on Earth Day at the Westside School to make the children aware of the world's pollution.

Defending Distance Champion Curtis Clabaugh looks remorsefully on the paper airplane which was awarded to the winner, Tony Shuler, while Jim Shuler seems to be just as happy with 3rd place.

The Agony of Defeat; Gene Spiering, Tom Singer, Mike Hinman, and Kit Jennings sadly display what remains of their dilapidated bridges. . . . After all that work!

The Thrill of Victory; Danny Reid, Hank Heasler, Bern Hinkley, Mike Hinman, and Don Grammens seem to be basking in the sweet glory of victory.

Dennis Davis greets his first place award, an icing-covered brick, with an open mouth. Mike Hinman donated the cake and Tom Singer donated the chuckle.

The Powell Chapter Of Quill And Scroll Initiates Sophomores For The First Time

Men and women dedicated to Stimulating the youth
Showing the way to travel
Repeating thoughts of retired minds
Awakening the thirst for knowledge.
Students come young, inexperienced, searching Almost lusting for knowledge.
They are led to discover the unknown variable
And make it known.
They delve into the delights of chemistry
And find new worlds of enjoyment.
They begin with changing voices
And end with gracious singing.
Their minds are matured
And they are taught to search for themselves.

High School

The means to an end

The end of a struggle.

New ideas, new challenges, new experiences

New opportunities all around.

For the freshmen it is the beginning of a phase

For the seniors it is the end of that phase.

The sophomores and juniors are waiting

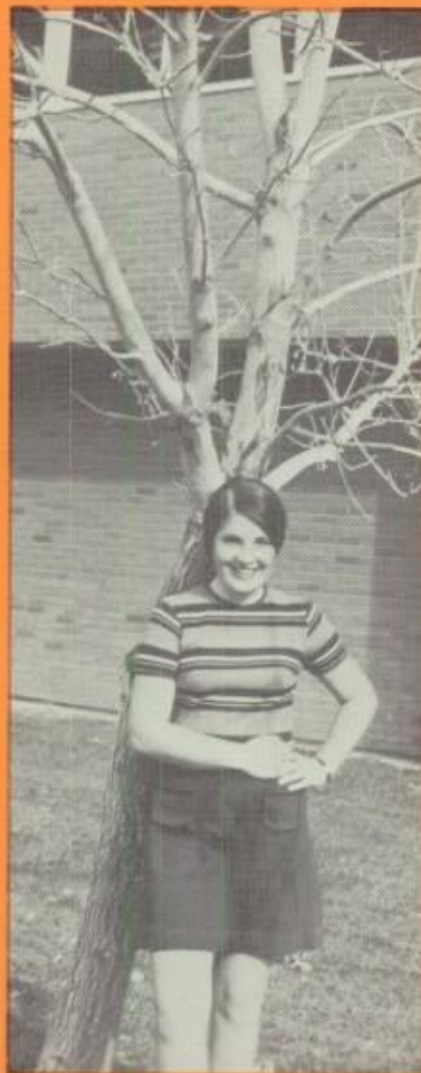

Gaining experience to carry on for themselves.

Though we travel separately, we travel together

Laughing, working, wishing for its end

Yet clinging to its memories.

Empty Pages

Empty pages;
they have to be filled.
What truth is now;
it can't be killed.
People crying;
they sit next to the window sill.

Their tears;
melting emotion.
Their tears;
casting a lonely notion-- to kill themselves. . .

I believe in you!

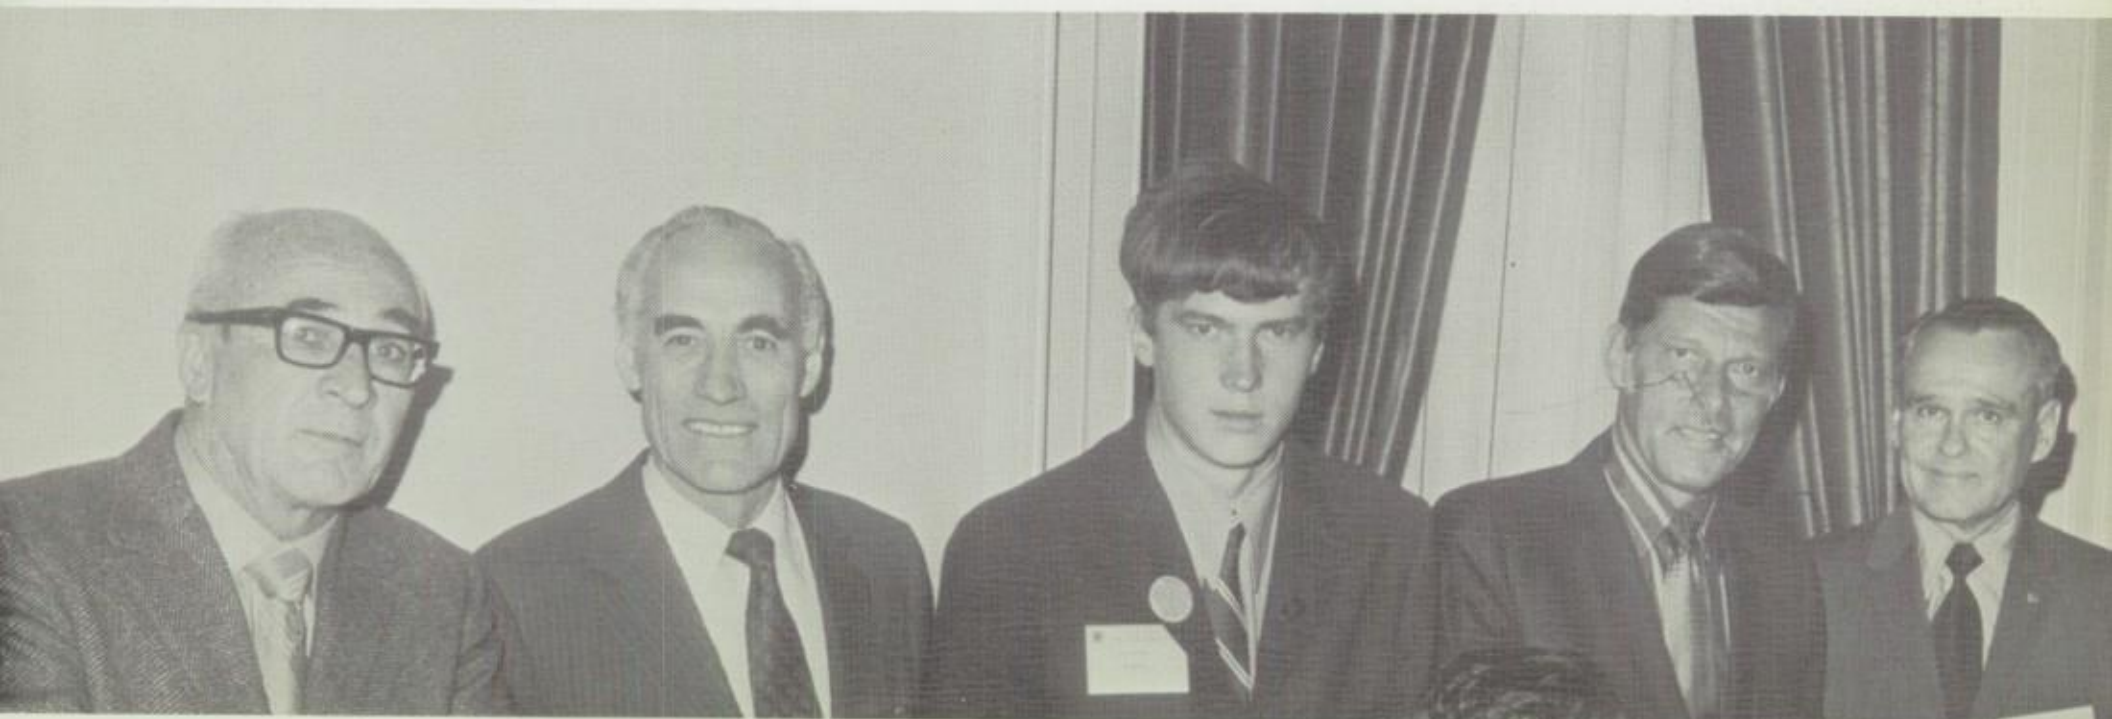

--John Hillshafer

The Future

I'm in my room at my desk,
with my future in my mind,
wondering what life holds for me.
I hear a knock at the door.
I get up and open it wide and gaze down an empty hall.
I sit back at my desk
and realize who is there.
I step into the hall and shut the door behind me.

people? Chic? had some flowered? Sorry well, we really had some old years together. Sorry far - out years to sign your id look up - long to have annual. Be good & have fun. Love

funny
how we laugh until we weep

funny
how we talk ourselves into silence

funny
how we bear our pain into a haven of unconsciousness

funny
how we progress ultimately to dead ends

funny
how we lead ourselves into blind alleys

funny
how we accept all this with complacency and congratulate our intelligence

Jannette

To a kid who i really dont know very well. Hope this year ill get to know you better. May God fill your life and give you all the happiness that i have found. All ways go to him i anything is troubling you.
JESUS CHRIST

Care

Greater Love has no man than this that he lay down his life for his friends. John 15:13

Your his friend Jannette.

Your friend in Christ.

Love
Rita

Janette,
It's really enjoyed knowing you these past two years. Keep your meat wrap and I'm sure you'll go far. If we both decided to go to Vienna I hope we'll make lots of fun. Best of luck in everything you set out to do and if you ever need seems-one to talk to, I'm always around! I hope that you find that special guy and if you have found him already - good luck!!

Your friend,
Jane Holmgren

R- is the privilege of loving and being loved.
E- is for the ease it gives the mind and soul.
A- is for the answers in search of yourself.
C- is for the calm in finding what you want and liking it.
E- is for everlasting!

May this friendship never cease...
PEACE!!

Good luck in the Future. Remember all the fun we have in band. Good luck
the boy. God Bless ya.

Every life needs
a guiding light to
show the way,
to give strength,
Something that is
individual, yet
can draw all in unity with its warmth and understanding, as a moth to a flame.
